YOUNG BURGLARS TRIED TUESDAY AT JUVENILE COURT

Decision Tomorrow On
Maria Boy; Fernandez
On Probation

Trial of two youthful Niles burglars before the juvenile court in Oakland Tuesday ended with Cesar Fernandez, one of the two, on probation. Decision in the case of Elmer Maria, Fernandez's companion, was postponed until tomorrow, according to word from juvenile court officials yesterday.

The Maria boy has appeared before the Oakland authorities before.

Both youths were arrested recently in connection with a series of burglaries in Niles business houses. Police stated that they confessed to several thefts here.

NILES FIGURES IN HISTORY OF WEST- ERN PACIFIC R. R.

Information about the origin of "Niles" as a place name, and the history of the name, was recently requested by Thomas P. Brown, of the Western Pacific Railroad News Service Bureau, for entry in a compilation of place-names connected with the railroad.

The facts requested are included in the following letter:

Jan. 25, 1935.
Thomas P. Brown,
Western Pacific Railroad,
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Brown:

In compliance with your request of January 12, concerning origin and history of Niles as a place-name, I am more than pleased to be able to give you the following information:

The town of Niles was first known as "Vallejo's Mills," deriving the name from flour mills set up on the banks of Alameda creek by General Vallejo. The present name was derived after 1869, when the Central Pacific Railroad first laid its track here. The station was named "Niles" by the company, after one of the officials of the line, Judge Niles.

Early in the history of the village, civic groups attempted to have the name changed, either back to "Vallejo's Mills" or to some other euphonious Spanish name. Usage, however, had spiked "Niles" in deep, and Niles it remained.

Very truly yours,
NORMAN H. PARKS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nagli celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary Monday.

NOTED MUSICIAN, FORMERLY OF NILES, DIES

Mrs. Estelle Heartt-Dreyfuss, famous singer and musician, and a resident of Niles many years ago, died recently at a southern California hospital, according to word received here late last week.

Mrs. Dreyfuss, born at Carson City, Nevada, came to this district as a child with her small brother, Burton Heartt, who now lives in Pasadena. The two children lived with Mr. and Mrs. Babb, once a well-known couple here.

Extremely talented, Mrs. Dreyfuss, studied music, both in the United States and abroad. She took up residence in southern California thirty years ago, and since then had been an outstanding personality in the musical world. She introduced "The Volga Boatman" into this country.

"SEE THE FLOWERS IN NATURAL SET- TING" IS PLANNED

Plans for widening the Niles Wildflower Show, sponsored each year by the Niles Chamber of Commerce, into a huge annual outing will be discussed soon by the civic group, following a suggestion by H. L. Scott that the event can be transformed into an attractive all-day affair for east bay tourists.

Scott's plan is to have particularly beautiful wildflower spots in the district sought out and an itinerary marked for a caravan of cars, which would visit each spot with scout guides, to see the flowers in their natural setting. The tourists would bring their lunches, to be eaten in some spot selected for its beauty and historical interest.

Visitors at former wildflower shows would be informed of the occasion by card.

Noted Paulist Will Conduct Missions Here

The Rev. Father Falvey, priest of St. Edward's parish at Newark, announced this week that the Rev. Albert A. Murray, C. S. P., noted Paulist missionary, recently transferred to California from New York, will conduct two missions in Washington township during February.

The first mission will be at St. Anne's church in Alvarado, beginning on Sunday, February 17, and continuing until Friday, February 21. The second mission will be at St. Edward's church at Newark, beginning on Sunday, February 24, and ending on Friday, March 1.

New Night Watchman Service In Effect Here Tomorrow Night

FIAO IS HELD TO ANSWER BEFORE HIGH COURT

With evidence sufficient to warrant further examination, Manuel Fiao, Niles man, was held to answer before the superior court after he had faced Judge J. A. Silva in the preliminary hearing Friday on charges of attempted assault brought by Mrs. Ida Maria, also of Niles. Fiao pleaded not guilty.

Fiao was arrested on December 22, after Mrs. Maria filed charges that he had come into her home and seized her with intent to rape. He was released on $1000 bail.

The accused was arraigned on January 11, represented by Alberto Moura, Oakland attorney.

The hearing Friday was before a closed court by order of Judge J. A. Silva, on request of Fiao's attorney.

ORCHARDISTS BUSY WITH SPRAYING THIS WEEK

Clouds of oily mist in Washington township orchards this week tell of discomfort for the scale bug as local growers apply their annual emulsion sprays. The work is well under way after delay by heavy rains.

According to Antone Garcia, spray authority, the orchards in the district are relatively clean this year, due in part to continued rains and because of steady application of the oil during the past seasons. He inferred that the scale bug is becoming less of an evil here because of precautions taken annually by orchardists. A number of ill-kept tracts in the district are infection spots, however.

The spray work will be finished as soon as possible in view of an early blossoming this year.

A.R. GRONLEY DIES YESTERDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Coming after a long illness, death took Arnt Roe Gronley, 49, well-known Centerville man, yesterday morning. He had been home from a San Jose hospital for only a few days.

Gronley is survived by his wife, Mrs. Petra Gronley, and the following children: Judith, Carrie, Olga, John and Lawrence Gronley. A sister, Mrs. Alameda, lives in this district. In addition to a brother in Norway Gronley leaves two brothers and a sister in Detroit, Michigan.

He was a native of Norway, having come to this section many years ago. He was an expert painter and builder.

Gronley was a member of the Alameda Lodge No. 167 of the F. and A. M., of the Orient Chapter No. 177 O. E. S., and a member in good standing of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Alvarado.

Funeral services will be tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Botello's Chapel of Palms, under the auspices of the Alameda lodge. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Irvington.

Junior Chamber Sponsors Efficient Patrol For Niles

A record for rapid action in a major community work will be set by the Niles Junior Chamber of Commerce tomorrow, when the new night watchman service, sponsored by the young civic group, will go into effect in Niles.

Taking the inadequate night service in hand as the first of their tasks, the Junior Chamber has successfully canvassed the town, purchased a certified watchman's clock, installed ten key stations, arranged for the insurance and set up an efficient service within a few weeks' time.

With well over $100 in monthly payments pledged by merchants and businessmen of Niles, the new civic group will retain complete control of the watchman and the maintenance of the system. The board of directors of the organization will supervise the work, pay the watchman, insurance premiums, and incidental expenses. They will receive and check the clock discs daily, and place them on file at the American garage, where they will be available to any interested person.

According to Sam Kerns, junior head, suggestions concerning the new service will be welcome, and should be made to him or to other members of the board.

Kerns stated that both the junior chamber and the merchants who have pledged their support will be fully protected from all liability by an insurance policy approved by District Attorney Earl Warren. C. Arntzen and Ralph A. Richmond, members of the night watchman committee, had charge of the insurance.

Art. Roderick, nightwatchman, will go on duty each night at 10 o'clock, and will make hourly rounds of the ten key stations until 6 in the morning. The ten stations will be distributed the length of the town, situated at strategic points that will leave no corner unguarded. Several times during the night, Roderick will try both the back and front doors of the business houses.

In connection with the night patrol service, Kerns stated that the junior group may take up activities to secure a county ordinance whereby children will have to stay off the streets after 9 p. m. The movement is being considered in other quarters.

Members of the night watchman committee, through whose efforts the service has been arranged are: C. Arntzen, George Bertel, Louis Di Giulio, Barney Brochi, Sam Kerns and Ralph A. Richmond.

Next meeting of the new civic organization will be at the Niles Grammar school Monday evening, at which time the dinner will be served by the Niles chapter, Parent-Teachers' Association.

A speaker from the sheriff's office will go over details of the new patrol service.

Reports of various committees will be heard, including that for the forthcoming pre-lenten dance, slated for the Garden of Allah on Saturday evening, March 2.

Light Coupe Found Stripped On Grade

A small coupe, thought to belong to a Santa Clara college student, was found stripped of wheels, radio and other equipment on the Escobar hill road Monday morning, according to Motor Officer Knives, then drove away.

The vehicle had no registration certificate, but Lewis deducting the San Jose ownership of the car from a Santa Clara college sticker, notified Santa Clara county police.

TRIAL TOMORROW IN DOG-SHOOTING CONTROVERSY

Charged with wantonly killing a dog belonging to F.H. Withers, Michael Overacker, Jr., of Mission San Jose, will appear for trial tomorrow at the Niles Justice court.

Overacker pleaded not guilty to the charges when arraigned before Judge J.A. Silva here on January 18.

The charges were filed several weeks ago, when Overacker allegedly shot and killed a collie belonging to Withers, when the dog crossed under the fence onto the Starr ranch. It is said that Starr and Overacker had agreed that dogs must be kept from terrifying the stock and turkeys on the range. The Withers dog was taken for one of the marauding canines.

BASEBALL LEAGUE IN SOUTH COUNTY MAY BE FORMED SOON

Formation of a Washington township baseball league, to be composed of teams from the several towns, and teams sponsored by local organizations, will be the subject of discussion at a meeting to be held Thursday evening, February 7, at the Centerville court house. Time for the gathering will be 8 p. m.

According to H. L. Scott, one of those fostering the plan, the meeting will be to decide on the number of teams desirable, and the rules for securing players. An attempt will be made to have each team play men from its own town, and refrain from hiring outside talent.

Scott said that all interested persons are urged to be on hand next Thursday night, adding that organizations interested in sponsoring a team should be represented.

The following towns have made tentative plans to enter nine in the proposed league: Niles, Pleasanton, Newark, Irvington, Decoto, Centerville, Alvarado and Mission San Jose.

Branch Office Created For Deputy Prosecutor

Increasing legal activity in Washington township and other sections of the south county has resulted in establishment of a branch district attorney's office in Hayward, Deputy District Attorney Stanley Smallwood stated Monday.

The office was created to allow Smallwood to devote more time to this section. He has been relieved of his duties in the Oakland courts.

Smallwood will be on call to Niles and Centerville justice courts on Tuesdays, with office hours from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

Tomato Growers Urged To Be at San Jose Meet

A number of Washington township tomato growers will go to San Jose tomorrow night to attend a growers' meeting at the chamber of commerce halls, where plans will be laid to organize for a fair price this year.

O. F. Hardaway, chairman of the growers' committee, got in touch with local growers this week and urged attendance. The organized growers will carry on from where they left off last year.

SECOND HEARING IN FORCLOSURE CASE IN 30 DAYS

Trial of the Hirsch-Sloan case, which came up last Wednesday before the referee in bankruptcy, at Oakland, was blocked again by Hirsch when the referee informed Mrs. W. A. Sloan that she would have to be represented by counsel before the hearing could go on.

It is thought that the decision of the referee in the matter indicates that he will sustain the Hirsch bill of objections.

Many persons interested in the case stated this week that they had held the opinion that the referee in bankruptcy was not endowed with power to pass on the validity of a law but was simply bound to apply the law as it came to him.

Mrs. Sloan was granted a continuance of thirty days. March 1 it will again come up for hearing.

NILES GIRL HURT TOBOGGAN VEERS INTO TREE STUMP

Striking her knee on a tree stump when the toboggan on which she was riding with three others plunged from the slide near Long Barn late Sunday, Miss Gladys Rose, well-known in Niles, is this week resting in bed with a fractured knee cap.

The accident occurred when Miss Rose, with Miss Shirley Vanderbilt and Leontine and Edwina Rose, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rose, were taking their last ride for the day. Miss Vanderbilt, who struck her head on the stump, was thought at first to be dead. She was rushed to a hospital, where she recovered.

Miss Gladys Rose rode from the Sierras to Niles before seeking medical aid. She is under the care of a local physician.

Motorist Tosses Two Knives To Small Boy

Whether it was sheer generosity or some dark motive that prompted an unidentified motorist to give two fine hunting knives to seven-year-old Jesus Valencia, Jr., is a question puzzling Constable Tom Silva, after the lad's mother turned the knives over to him Monday.

According to the boy's story, a large automobile skidded to a stop in front of the Valencia home on the Dumbarton road near Brown's corner late yesterday. The occupant called the boy and asked him if he wanted a knife. Without waiting for an answer the man tossed the boy a leather belt sheathing two keen-edged knives, then drove away.

Decoto Man Injured In Fall Under Truck

Falling under a wheel when he attempted to "nip a ride" on a truck Sunday night, Bernard Corchero, 43, of Decoto, suffered a fractured pelvis. The truck was driven by Ernest Delgado, also of Decoto.

Corchero was taken to the Hayward hospital for emergency treatment.

Legion Auxiliary To Back Camp Fire Unit

The Gemewance group of the Washington Township Camp Fire Girls will be sponsored henceforth by the Ladies' Auxiliary Post No. 195 of the American Legion, according to Mrs. Nell Farrington Meyers, guardian of the group.

Following the break-up of the Camp Fire group into a number of smaller units recently, some difficulty was encountered in selecting sponsoring bodies. The Gemewance group is the first to be duly backed by a community organization.

ECONOMIC DEBATE STIRS INTEREST OF CIVIC GROUP

First of "Three-Minute Talks" Precipitates Warm Discussion

A widening of thought and discussion of important social and economic problems, uncommon in such organizations, bids fair to take the interest of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, for the next meeting at least, after the first of the "three-minute" talks, delivered Monday by A. J. Petsche.

Deploping all attempts at economic change, the message of the address Monday was that all the fruits of the present civilization and all material progress over many decades was the direct result of desire for power and profit, and that without this incentive, there would be a retrogression. Entrance of government into industry was also deplored, with the warning that dictatorship and autocracy awaited the result.

Apparently gratifying upon the opinion of several members of the group, the address was met with challenge to debate, in order that progressive ideas may be aired, and present federal policies defended. Lester Duffy will be the speaker at next Monday's meet.

A guest at the meeting, J. R. Blacow, when called upon to speak, continued the thread of the discussion with the warning that it was high time that American business and capital set about putting its house in order to meet relentless economic changes. Blacow stated that the present system should remove its head from the sand and face the reality of changing thought, which he inferred was visible on all sides. He urged serious consideration of progressive ideas.

Preceding the talks, W. B. Kirk told of the completion of the hedge on First street, and told of comment, all favorable, being passed in the town. Bills incurred by the planting were voted paid.

A. J. Petsche stated that a vote of thanks should be given to Frank Nunes, who supervised the work without pay, and did a fine job of it. The vote was given unanimously.

E. C. Grau, chairman of the card party committee, reported on that affair. He stated that it was a financial success, and lauded work of those who made it so.

The annual membership drive for the chamber, slated to begin in the near future, will be a topic for discussion at the next meeting. Committees to contact the local business and professional men will be named.

Harry Hunt Accepts Agricultural Post

Harry Hunt, son of Mrs. H. R. Hunt, of Niles, resigned as agricultural commissioner of Monterey county this week, to take up a position with A. A. Brock, director of agriculture, according to a report received here Tuesday.

Hunt, a native of this district, has been commissioner of the peninsula county for a number of years. He is a graduate of the University of California, agricultural school at Davis.

Breaks Leg In Tussle With Dog Last Sunday

C. E. Martenstein, of Niles, suffered a fractured leg Sunday when he fell while tussling with his dog. He is widely known in this district and prominent in insurance circles in the east bay area.

The break, a simple fracture of a bone below the knee, will keep Martenstein confined to his home for a number of weeks.

Watch the Water Supply

Water fountains for poultry are often counted expensive appliances. Those who keep only a small flock are apt to think ordinary open vessels which can be bought for a small fraction of their cost will do as well. The great advantage of the fountain is that it keeps the water much longer at the temperature it was when put in, and that in summer there is very little evaporation from it. On a hot, dry day water will evaporate from open drinking vessels so fast that they may be dry long before the time when they are usually refilled. Where the attendant is away from home all day, the consequence is that the birds are without water when they need it most.

Use of Whitewash

Whitewash has a wide application on the small farm place, especially for poultry houses. Its ingredients are inexpensive and easily obtained; it is not difficult to make and is easily applied. It protects surfaces, brightens dark interiors and is sanitary. It can be colored if light tints that are not affected by the lime are used. Among the colors suitable for use with it are yellow ochre, raw and burnt umber and raw and burnt sienna. The surface should be clean.

Cost of Pullets

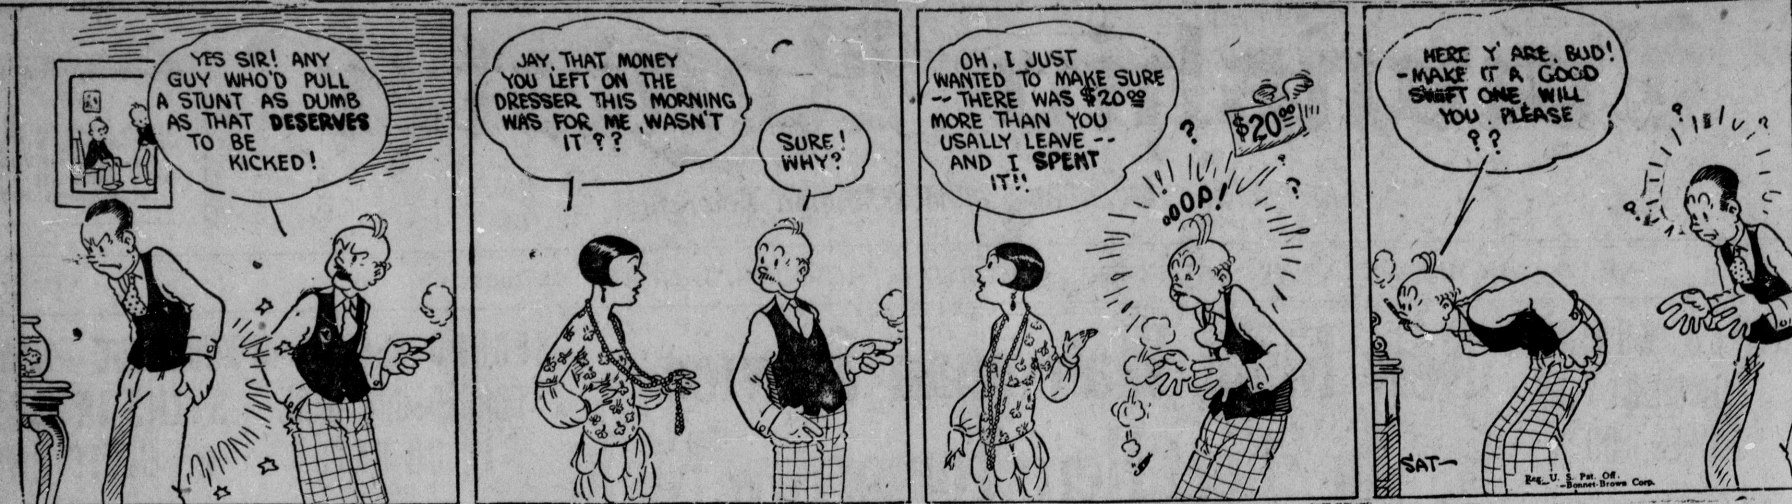

According to the Arizona experimental station, in a cost account study recently released, the net cost of producing a pullet was 98.5 cents, and the actual cash cost to the poultryman, 61.5 cents, after deducting labor and other charges. The larger the number of chicks brooded, the less the cost of raising a pullet, it was pointed out. Mortality in twenty flocks under observation by this station averaged from 7 per cent to 65 per cent.—Los Angeles Times.

POULTRY AFFAIRS

Every hen that drops into a molt is out of the production race until late in the season.

One of the greatest troubles most poultry men have to maintain winter egg production is to maintain body weight.

Since four-fifths of the poultry in this country is raised by farmers and only one-fifth by commercial poultrymen grass is an important feed item.

Heroes Are Made

By JACK BLOODHART

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate, WNU Service.

WHEN the authorities at the university finally rebelled at Tommy Nash's never-ending infractions of what Tommy considered foolish and tiresome rules, they expelled him. That such an action would make of him a national hero they did not know, and it was like-wise an unknown quantity to Thomas A. Nash, Sr.

"You," he said frostily to Tommy, "are no good. You waste my money and yours on chorus girls and night clubs. You have no sense, no guts, no..."

"That," said Tommy, "is not only untrue, it is—"

"Say no more about it. And now, young man, you may get out. I'm through with you. You get no more of my money, not one cent, until you've proved you deserved it. That's all. Good day, sir."

A suitcase in each hand, Tommy Nash stood surveying the lettered sign of the old frame house. "Mrs. O'Regan's" it read. "Rooms for Rent."

Mrs. O'Regan eyed him suspiciously. She was a lady of ample proportions and a wicked eye.

"Five dollars a week," she said. And as an afterthought, "in advance."

Tommy hastily calculated that to relinquish five dollars would leave him three dollars and seventy-five cents, and the contents of one of the suitcases with which to forget his troubles. He directed Mrs. O'Regan to lead on.

Tommy hastily admitted that he was charmed with the room.

Before she left Mrs. O'Regan said:

"I do not allow any drinking, gambling or playing the radio after midnight. Also no women in single men's rooms."

"Perhaps," Tommy said, half to himself, "I have made a mistake and am in the Martha Washington." Then he hastily drew himself to his full height and thundered, "Madam, I am a gentleman and scholar, and such lascivious pursuits as you just mentioned find no place in my scheme of living."

Startled, Mrs. O'Regan shot him a bewildered look and scurried off down the hall.

Tommy turned into his room, opened one of the suitcases, and from it took several bottles of beer, which he placed in a neat row on the dresser. Also from the suitcase he produced a flat bottle of colorless liquid which might have been alcohol. It was alcohol.

By nine o'clock that evening Tommy was pleasantly drunk. He opened the door of his room, intending good will toward all men. The hall was vacant and dimly lighted. Tommy whistled a bar or two of a popular melody, yodeled part of a cowboy lament, and floated back into his room.

"What now?" he wondered. Then he noticed the empty beer bottles. "I," he said aloud, "shall arrange them art—artish—artistically in the hall."

He picked up two of the bottles and placed them on their sides in the middle of the hall. Weaving heavily back into the room, he turned and surveyed his work.

"That is most beautiful. Mos' art—artish—pretty. I mush put more there."

He retrieved two more bottles and was about to resume his labors when the sound of running steps reached him. He gravely put down the bottles and started to investigate when a racing figure hit one of the bottles in the hall and crashed to the floor.

"You," said the thoroughly annoyed Tommy to the recumbent figure, "have spoiled my arrangement of these bottles. You shall pay for that." So saying he lifted one of the bottles and brought it down gently but firmly on the other's head. With a sigh the man lost consciousness.

Amazed and momentarily stupefied at what he had done, Tommy jumped to his feet, tossed the two dead soldiers back into his room, and was going in himself when a hall stopped him.

"Hey, youse!"

Tommy halted, by now nearly sober. That was an amazing faculty of his which his father had failed to appreciate when cataloging Tommy's faults.

Tommy saw, with a shock, that the hall had come from the lungs of a burly policeman.

"Oh, oh," thought Tommy. The policeman came puffing up, examined the man on the floor and handcuffed him. Tommy watched dazedly.

"What—" he began. "My boy," interrupted one of the officers, "you've captured one of the toughest mugs in town. How did you do it?" he asked admiringly. "It was nothing at all," modestly admitted Tommy.

His father eyed Tommy quizzically.

"The papers say you're a hero," he said. "I don't see how you did it, but if you're a hero, you're a hero. I suppose I was wrong, and I'm inclined to add to the reward. But I don't see how you did it. No, I must certainly do not."

"It was nothing at all—nothing at all," Tommy explained lightly.

Feed the Dead Sea

The Jordan and several smaller streams empty 6,000,000 tons of water into the Dead sea daily. The sea has no outlet. The water is carried off by evaporation.

Chinese Walking Fish

Chinese walking fish (Channa fasciata) inhabit rice fields and in the dry season when only shallow pools remain, they are said to walk a wiggly over the ground to more suitable pools.

Bird Hunters Now Must

Purchase Federal Stamps

Washington.—Every one wishing to hunt migratory waterfowl hereafter will be required to carry a $1 federal hunting stamp affixed to his state license, or to a certificate furnished by his postmaster.

Stamps will be sold at post offices in all towns of more than 2,500 population. Revenue derived from their sale is expected to total $600,000, or $1,000,000 annually and will be used to lease, or purchase, "in-violate" refuges for ducks, geese, and other waterfowl.

Collectors of birds for scientific purposes also will be required to have the stamps.

Family of 4 Lives

Two Years on $200

Seattle.—That they, their two children and a housekeeper have lived very comfortably on a total income of $200, is the modest claim of Mr. and Mrs. Farrar Burn. Mr. Burn, a musician, and Mrs. Burn, a writer, work only enough each year to meet their scant demands. They live on a small island of the beautiful San Juan group, with a cow, a garden and a sea full of fish to provide their meals.

Better Handling of Horses Urged

Old Dobbin Now Staging Comeback; Cost of Keep Important Item.

By E. L. Sauer, Farm Management Specialist, University of Illinois.—WNU Service.

Horses are staging a comeback, but some of their value as a source of economical farm power will be lost unless they are handled efficiently. Next to man labor, the cost of keeping work horses is one of the largest items of expense on many farms. This is often not realized because horses are usually fed on farm-grown grains and roughages and no cash outlay is necessary for their feed.

How widely the worth and expenses of horses may vary depending upon their management is shown in a study of cost account records kept by 33 farmers in co-operation with the farm management division of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture. The net cost of keeping a work horse for the year varied from $24.23 to $76.98, or an average of $46.58.

The number of hours of work performed by the horses ranged from 309 to 1,244 each, the average being 705 hours. The cost for each hour of horse labor averaged 6.6 cents. This varied from 3.6 cents on the lowest-cost farm to 18.4 cents an hour on the farm with the highest horse power cost. The cost for each hour's work was closely correlated with the number of hours worked by each horse, although the total cost of keeping a horse varied widely on farms where the horses worked an equal number of hours.

Feed accounted for 50 per cent of the average total cost of maintaining the horses, man labor required to care for and harness the horses accounted for another 14 per cent, shelter 9 per cent, interest on investment 7 per cent, depreciation 5 per cent, harness 4 per cent and veterinary, shoeing and incidental costs 2 per cent.

From these figures it is evident that the cost for each unit of horse power on farms can be reduced by cutting down the maintenance expenses and by increasing the hours of productive work done by each horse. The feed given the animals and the labor spent in caring for them must be governed by the work done, if horse power is to be economical. Depreciation costs may be reduced and an appreciation in the horse account effected by raising colts for replacement purposes.

Clover Hay Good Feed

Clover is good feed. On the stock farm clover can be used for hay or pasture. Clover hay contains nearly twice as much nitrogen, 50 per cent more phosphorus, and four to six times as much calcium as timothy hay. These are the important bone and muscle making elements. These differences are characteristic of legumes and non-legumes. The Oklahoma station compared more than 300 samples each of legumes. They found that the legumes averaged nearly four times as much phosphorus, and more than two and a half times as much nitrogen as the non-legumes. Legumes are an important source of minerals for both man and animals.—Rural New-Yorker.

Prevent Pig Parasites

It is much easier, according to the specialists at the Department of Agriculture, to prevent small pigs from becoming infested with intestinal parasites, such as the roundworm, than it is to rid the pigs of them once the parasites have become established. The parasites are quite easily controlled by the use of a sanitation system which should be started before the birth of the pigs. Clean farrowing pens are essential and the sow should be thoroughly washed before she is turned into the pen. After the pigs are born they should be kept in clean pastures until they are about four months old.

Bulbs and Bill

By AMY CAMPBELL

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate, WNU Service.

"MOTHER," her older daughter said to Harriet after luncheon. "Bill and I are going to their cottage to plant bulbs this afternoon."

Harriet marshaled her subtlest common sense and blandest histrionic ability.

"Sounds pleasant to plant bulbs today. Who is Bill, where is the cottage and what kind are you planting?"

Meanwhile she adroitly hid her inward turmoil. Bettina must not escape her with the wrong boy to the wrong place alone at sixteen for indefinite hours. And Bettina must never suspect it was a really vital decision.

"Bill? Don't say you haven't seen him 'round here—Bill Moore. His mother knows you."

"Describe him," suggested Harriet cheerily as if her attention were only slightly captured.

"Oh—" impatiently—"that's not my line. He's taking the convertible and a load of bulbs in the rumble. We may go to the picture at the Pat tonight if we feel like it when we get back. Bill says gardening is a trifle exhausting at first. I'm to stab in the bulbs while he digs and shows me where..."

Don't fuss if we're late, Mom, for it may take hours."

"Sorry I didn't pay proper attention to your plans, Bet. How many of you are going and where is it? Bulbs and Bill, you said—what else?"

"We're going to their cottage at the beach," Bettina said, with the degree of belated respect for her mother's opinion that Harriet had waited for.

"Who is with you beside Bill, Sweet?" Harriet felt the affection which she allowed to creep into the little name.

"Why, just the two of us, why?" and then, suspiciously—

"Say, Mom, just what is this all about? You're not going out to the coupe and question Bill when he comes and say we must have a chaperon or we can't go."

So it had to come to a crisis.

She said: "Dear, don't be unheavened. Quite naturally you can't wish, when you come to think of it, to go without wanting Bill to take his mother or some one else, on such a heavenly afternoon. She'd probably like to oversee her own color scheme anyway. Why not phone and investigate with her first? She would be flattered and value you at the same time."

Harriet hated herself for being officious.

"Don't be so jittery. Of course Bill's mother isn't going. She is candid about effort of any kind. Loathes it. The cottage is locked, barred and winter-bound. The distance, twenty miles. Work will take perhaps two hours. We'll tea at the hotel grill which is still open. Be back for dinner and a later show. There's a program. Take it or leave it!"

"Movie stuff, darling. But unconvincing. You can't talk to your hostesses like that and remain a popular guest. Plan something else at once and not waste the day. The other is naturally off. Sorry I can neither take it nor leave it just yet. Not at sixteen, Sweet. Not be your proper mother."

"Well, if that isn't cool! And heavy. Maternal solicitude indeed." Bettina said this with deadly deliberation.

Harriet hid her anger successfully as she said, "Don't attempt to be horribly clever, darling," and walked with assumed serenity into the sunroom.

Bettina called after her: "I'll phone Daddy, that's what I'll do." "Anything you like, Bettina," was the smooth assent. "I like your Dad's judgment about anything and everything."

Then Harriet appeared to become lost in a bit of writing she was doing. In exactly five minutes she heard her daughter's dulcet tones at the telephone.

"Bill, I don't think I want to

VICTORY CIRCLE FETES GRAND OFFICER MONDAY NIGHT

The official visit of Grand Arch Druidess Anna Ormonde, of San Luis Obispo, was the high spot of a meeting Monday night of the Victory Circle, Centerville. The grand officer was accompanied by several of her assistants, as well as representatives from Oakland, San Jose, San Leandro and Pleasanton.

Four candidates were presented for initiation at the gathering. They were: The Misses Jessie Francis and Catherine Durra, Mrs. Helen C. Rogers and Mrs. Rose Soito.

Following the initiation and business session, the assemblage enjoyed a banquet. The evening was voted one of the best in the annals of the group.

The Evening Card Club met last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Coit.

Mrs. Frank Souza was returned to her home from the Mt. Zion Hospital in San Francisco in the Botelho ambulance Monday.

OFFICIAL VISIT TO N.D.G.W. PARLOR TOMORROW

One of the big social events of the year for the local parlor, the official visit of Grand President Gladys Noce, will be received tomorrow night by members of the Betsy Ross Parlor, Native Daughters, at a meeting to be held at the club house.

Mrs. Irma Kirk will preside at the session, which will be attended by representatives of parlors of San Leandro, Piedmont, Hayward, Pleasanton and Niles.

Barn Fire Calls Out Firemen Last Saturday

Centerville firemen were called out for the first time during the rainy season Saturday afternoon to extinguish a small blaze in a barn on the Antone Lewis place on Central avenue. The fire is said to have started when wisps of burning straw blew from a nearby bonfire into hay on the barn floor. The damage was small.

HUSKERS LOSE TWO; WIN TWO; OVER WEEK-END

Two defeats and two victories is the record for the Washington high cagers over the week-end, after both the varsity and B's lost to the Livermore fives Friday night, then came back Monday to wreak vengeance on the Pleasanton quintets with two wins.

Facing a fast team, with Laybourne, star center, on the bench with an infected hand, the Husker varsity lost their game to Livermore Friday, 21 to 36. Muniz, Rathbone and Rose did good work. Further hard luck overtook the Huskers this week, when Juarez, sub center, cut his hand.

The B team was defeated the same evening 29 to 13 by the Cowboy midgets.

Both Husker teams fared better Monday, when they revived sufficiently to take two games from Pleasanton. The Varsity, with a center discovery in Rathbone, beat the Dons 36 to 23. Muniz was high point man with 14. Rathbone scored 12.

The B aggregation took their contest 23 to 11. Masuda, Rudd, Muni and Yamashita were the mainstays.

LOCAL SOCCER TEAM HAS EYE ON CUP IN 2 DIVISION

Even if their last two scheduled games were left unplayed because of automobile breakdowns and bad weather, the Centerville soccer team, managed by Manuel Rose, are still in quest of the division pennant. They will face the Sons of St. George Sunday morning at the Neptune Stadium.

The boys are smarting under a forfeit to Alameda, two weeks ago, when several of their players failed to reach the stadium, due to car trouble. Manager Rose will attend a league meeting Tuesday night to try and have the forfeit wiped off and the game played within the next two weeks. A win over Alameda would insure the cup for the local team.

With their aggregation strengthened by several players from the University of California team, the local boys will bid fair to break into the first division soon.

Centerville Personals

Mrs. Frank Dusterberry represented the Country Club of Washington township at a meeting of the Rockridge Club in Berkeley last Wednesday.

'WHEN MEN MARRY' AT AUDITORIUM THIS EVENING

Hilarity will reign supreme tonight when the Lions Club scout benefit comedy, "When Men Marry," will be staged at the Washington Union High school auditorium. More than ninety prominent local men will take part.

Although the majority of parts in the farce call for dresses and silks, there is not a woman in the cast. The men will do it all. Talk of lace, models, styles and coiffures has been a major part of male conversation during the past week.

Miss Esther Ladwig, coach of the De Roy Theatrical Company, states that her charges are ready for the footlights. The farce will be played tomorrow night, as well.

Funds derived from the production will be divided between the several scout districts, in proportion to their annual quota.

Hollywood Make-Up Artist to Demonstrate

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Swainson, Centerville beauticians who are ever on the alert to bring new methods and expert advice to local women, will offer one of their greatest treats next Tuesday, when Harry Seigelman, Hollywood's greatest make-up artist, will give complexion analysis and demonstrate his art on models selected.

Seigelman, a pioneer in the make-up art, and connected for years with the movie industry, will have a message of importance for all interested women. He will be at Swainson Beauty Salon for two hours Tuesday afternoon.

Frank Madruga returned to his work Tuesday after an illness that kept him confined to his home for five days.

J. A. Coney and son, Edward, called on Centerville friends Sunday afternoon.

Welfare Group Assists Numerous Local Tots

Reports on the Christmas season activities of the Welfare Club were the main business gone over at the meeting of that group recently at the home of Mrs. Henri Salz.

Mrs. D. Kimberly reported that response in the community was so good, that club funds were not touched to assist some eighty-three children in this district.

Members of the group, besides contributing garments and work, also gave small sums of money toward the cause, Mrs. Kimberly reported.

Doctors Know!

... and they use liquid laxatives

You'd use a liquid, too, if you knew how much better it makes you feel. A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

Just ask your own doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help—and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without aid. People who have experienced this comfort, never return to any form of help that can't be regulated! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit. It relieves a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset. To relieve your occasional upset safely and comfortably, try Syrup Pepsin. The druggist has it.

CENTERVILLE WOMAN HURT IN HEAD-ON CRASH SUNDAY

Mrs. Theresa R. Enos, of Centerville, is resting at a San Jose hospital this week, following a head-on automobile collision Sunday, in which she suffered possible internal injuries, a broken left arm and fractured ribs.

The crash occurred Sunday morning when the car in which she was riding, driven by her husband, M. B. Enos, collided in the fog with one driven by Rikija Oshita, 56, San Jose Japanese. The accident occurred at the intersection of Landiss and Capitol avenues, south of Millpitas.

Sho Oshita, son of the Japanese, was slightly hurt. Enos and Oshita escaped injury. The injured were given first aid treatment by a Millpitas physician.

JOHN V. FONTES IS TAKEN BY DEATH LAST SUNDAY

A resident of California for forty-five years, seven of which were spent in Centerville, John Vierra Fontes, 72, died at his home on Santa's avenue, south of Centerville, at 9:45 Sunday morning. He had been failing in health for several months.

Born in the Azores, Fontes came to California many years ago. He moved to Centerville in 1928, and took up residence with his brother, Marcelino Fontes. He was unmarried. In addition to his brother, Fontes is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Quadros, who lives in the Azores.

Funeral will be this morning at 9:00 from the Botelho Chapel of Palms, with a requiem high mass following at the Holy Ghost church. Interment will be in the Holy Ghost cemetery.

MISS GLADYS ROSE BRIDE OF ANTHONY P. ROSE SATURDAY

Listed among early spring weddings in Washington township is that of Miss Gladys Rose and Anthony P. Rose, solemnized Saturday morning at the Holy Ghost church. The Rev. Father A. Souza officiated.

Maid of honor, attending the bride, was Miss Ramona Mello, of Niles. Best man was Joseph Rose, brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon in the southern part of the state. They will make home in Centerville.

Augustine Davilla Weds Evergreen Girl

Augustine Davilla, of Centerville, and Miss Mary Sarmiento, of Evergreen, were united in marriage recently at San Jose, according to reports here this week. The couple plan to make their home here.

Three New Classes Are Added At Night School

Answering a demand among local night school students, three new courses were added to the curriculum at the Washington Union High night school this week.

A social science class was begun on Tuesday evening; a Spanish class on Monday. The latter class will meet twice weekly, on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Another interesting course that has been added, and which met for the first time Tuesday evening, is one in lip-reading, conducted by Miss Hattie L. Williams. It is said that the course will attract a large number of students. Those who are hard of hearing will benefit greatly, it is thought.

BING CROSBY IS GREAT IN "HERE IS MY HEART"

America's new sweetheart of the screen Shirley Temple comes to the Hayward screen tonight to start a three-day run of "Bright Eyes." James Dunn is in the supporting cast.

"Wagon Wheels," starring Randolph Scott and Gail Patrick, is one of the features for Sunday and Monday. "We're Rich Again" is the other attraction, with Marian Nixon and Edna Mae Oliver.

One of the greatest thrillers of the season is "Murder in the Clouds," coming Tuesday and Wednesday with Lyle Talbot and Ann Doran. "Marie Galante," with Spencer Tracy, is on the same bill.

Hailed by critics as Bing Crosby's greatest, "Here Is My Heart" comes for a three-day run beginning next Thursday. Kitty Carlisle is in the cast. George O'Brien adds to the program in "Dude Ranger."

CONSTRUCTION OF CLUB HOUSE STAGE MAY BEGIN SOON

Benefit Friday Evening
Draws Appreciative
Multitude

Early construction of a stage at the club house in Centerville is seen following a successful benefit program given last Friday evening at the Memorial building, in Niles. An unusually fine program, followed by dancing, was enjoyed by more than 200 people.

The stage committee of the Country Club will meet tomorrow afternoon to look over plans for construction, and make up their financial report to be submitted at the Country Club meeting Tuesday. The committee members this week inspected the stage at the Alviso Grammar school, which is said to be similar to the one they are planning.

If cost of the project is within the club budget, the construction will begin in time to have the stage finished next fall. It is planned to add the stage space to the building in order that the present seating capacity will not be curtailed.

Following the success of the benefit Friday night cost of lighting equipment, properties, and other necessary paraphernalia may be defrayed with funds from similar affairs throughout the year.

When completed the stage may be used by any township organization for plays or other productions committee members stated.

Niles Man Held After Fatal Crash Near Napa

Alexander McOmie, 26-year-old employee of a Niles nursery, was held for questioning last week by District Attorney Mervin Lernerhart, of Napa county, after McOmie's car had struck and killed Robert McCabe, 70, retired San Francisco man, in front of the Veteran's home at Yountville.

McCabe, according to McOmie's story to police, was walking in the center of the highway and was not seen until too late to swerve aside.

McOmie was released after the officials were satisfied that he was blameless.

Townsend Club Gets 6 New Members Monday

Six new members enrolled Monday night at the second meeting of the Niles Townsend Pension Club. This brings the membership to thirty-four, according to Jack Alberg, head of the organization. He stated that a similar club is being formed in Centerville.

The members of the groups will concentrate on getting signatures for the petitions. The bill will be presented before congress this week.

FEBRUARY MEET OF COUNTRY CLUB TUESDAY

A slight innovation will be made in the procedure at the February meeting of the Country Club, to be held Tuesday afternoon, when the business meeting, usually first, will be held at the conclusion of the program.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Owen Swanson, the club members will witness an unusual demonstration in the art of make-up, to be put on by Harry Selgelman, eminent Hollywood make-up artist. Selgelman will accompany his demonstration with a description of methods and results.

Mrs. Paul Pitman will take an important place on the program with a talk on appreciation of personalities, with emphasis on "February Personalities."

Mrs. E. Dixon Bristow will present Mrs. Wesley Dexter Gordon in a group of vocal selections with Henri Salz at the piano. Mrs. Bristow will also present Miss Shirley Malm, member of the Metropolitan Opera Company, in interpretive dances.

Each member is privileged to bring a guest. The business meeting is to be important, members stated, and attendance is urged.

Niles Couple Hosts To Poets Saturday Night

Prominent literary figures in California and the west were among guests Saturday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dexter Gordon entertained members of the Berkeley Verse Writers' Club and several members of the Arts and Crafts Guild of Washington Township.

Among those present were: Archibald Overton Harris, chairman of the club; Lo Verne Wilson, editor of Westward, and head of the 1935 Poets' Dinner; Elma Marlowe Dean, prize winner at the Poets' Dinner last year; Jean Steele Marlett, of San Francisco, one of the officers of the San Francisco branch of the League of American Pen Women; Grace Griffith Allison, well-known water color artist, of Santa Rosa; Nell Griffith Wilson, of Sonoma, whose poem "Weeping Willow Tree," won first prize at the 134 Poets' Dinner.

Other guests were: Mildred M. Anderson, Gertrude Fletcher, Ira L. Hiatt, Thelma Wake Smith, Jeanett A. Travis, Fred W. Hiatt, Ira Dee Hiatt, Stella Flowers Hastings, C. Roy Heinrichs, Maxine Wilson, Margaret Harris Richards and Karletta Mulkey.

Members of the local guild among the guests were: Nell Farrington Meyers, Milla Rix Norris, Mrs. Norman H. Parks, Phoebe C. Ormsby, Mrs. S. C. Hodges, Dorothy Ormsby and Gladys Williamson.

Abatement District Busy, Report Shows

Washington township was the scene of much of the work done by the mosquito abatement district in 1934, according to the annual report of the district, received this week.

Construction of new drainage ditch, cleaning of the old, oiling of marsh and sloughs, construction of dikes and other jobs were done to prevent spread of the salt water pests.

Hayward Roller Rink Offers Healthful Sport

Roller skating, an enjoyable and healthful pastime, is available to residents of the south county with the opening of a roller rink at the Hayward armory, at C and Main streets, Hayward.

The rink is open each afternoon and evening. A large floor, smooth and level, plus good roller-bearing skates, offers an evening of healthful, invigorating fun.

San Jose Club Is Honored At Dinner

A dinner was given recently at Irvington in honor of the Business Efficiency Club of the Notre Dame High school of San Jose. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Santos. Miss Marie Santos acted as hostess.

Bernice Arnold, of San Jose was the main speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of San Francisco, spent the week-end with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wehren and family.

BALTIMORE TRIP

Wallace Pond Irvington youth, left last Tuesday for Baltimore as delegate to the Phi Delta Chi convention which will be held in the first part of February. He will receive his degree in pharmacy in May.

Miss Marie Santos was among members of the Business Efficiency Club to visit the state capitol recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Soares entertained friends from Oakland on Saturday.

Several Irvington people attended the auto show Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silva and daughter, of Alvarado, visited here Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Enos.

Miss Irma Dutra, of Santa Clara, visited here over the week-end.

Night Phone Service For Newark Assured

Following continuous effort of the Newark Improvement Club, word was received in Newark recently of a decision of the Railroad Commission, that forecasts night telephone service for the town by next fall.

The drive has been carried on for several months by the club, with the assistance of the Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce and other groups. The system will be of the dial variety, it is said, which will do away with the necessity for a night operator.

Modern Three-Minute Way to Ease Sore Throat

1. Crush and stir 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets in a third glass of water.

2. Gargle Thoroughly—throw your head way back, allowing a little to trickle down your throat. Do this twice. Do not rinse mouth.

3. If you have a cold, take 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets. Drink full glass of water. Repeat if necessary, following directions in package.

Ease Pain, Rawness, Soreness Almost Instantly

Here's a safe, modern and effective way to relieve sore throat. A way that eases the pain, rawness and irritation in as little as two or three minutes. Many doctors advise it and millions are following this way. Try it.

All you do is crush and stir 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets in 1/2 glass of water and gargle with it twice—as pictured here. (If you have signs of a cold, take BAYER Aspirin and drink plenty of water.)

Get real BAYER Aspirin Tablets for this purpose. They disintegrate quickly and completely, making a gargle without irritating particles.

BAYER Aspirin prices have been decisively reduced, so there's no point now in accepting other than the real Bayer article you want.

NATURAL GAS HEAT

IT HAS BEEN COLD enough already this winter, but the real need for adequate whole house warmth is here now, this month, and in the month just ahead. Whether your home will be one of comfort and health will depend upon the type of heating equipment it has and the kind of fuel it uses. For California climate the best fuel is gas.

With gas heating, you order the degree and the amount of heating your house requires by handy valve control or automatic thermostat. Hour after hour of lively heat—clean heat that circulates in full-bodied warmth into every cold or draughty corner of a room.

Prepare your house now with modern gas heating equipment to cope with winter's severest weather. Single unit gas heating equipment can be purchased for as little as $16 to $56. Conversion burners for furnaces or stoves cost from $12 to $40. Central furnace systems from $90 to $180 and up. Convenient purchase terms can be made that apply on both cost of equipment and the installation.

EAGLES PLAN FOR OFFICIAL VISIT ON FEBRUARY 6

Word was received last week by the East Bay Council of the Fraternal Order of Eagles comprising ten Aeries in this county, of the official visit of Grand President George F. Douglas, of Philadelphia who will pay his official visit to the Alameda county council on the evening of February 6. Preparations for his arrival are being made.

At the last meeting of the county council, President R.H. Mahoney appointed the following to make arrangements for the reception and initiation to be held in honor of the high official: Dr. H. B. Mehrmann, of Oakland, chairman; Nels Nelson, of Hayward; F. L. Krumb, of Alameda; Gil Seaver, of Fruitvale; J. E. Lewis, of Alvarado; F. J. Hirschmann, of San Leandro; Fred Watson, of San Jose and W. McChristian, of Richmond.

A class of 200 initiates will be taken into the order at the meet.

Congregational Church News

The subject for the morning services will be one of great interest. It is the third in a series of sermons on the foundations of the Master laid for His great life work. The subject is entitled "And He Came Out of the Wilderness."

Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock and will be dismissed at 11.

Christian Endeavor will meet at 7 o'clock at the parsonage. The last three tests will be given to determine the best methods of presenting Bible material.

Bible Theater of the Air will present the very beautiful story of the healing of the Demoniac. You should not miss this Sunday's presentation. The station is KQW, San Jose, from 4:00 to 4:15 o'clock.

Choir practice will be conducted by Mrs. Gordon at the parsonage Monday evening.

Stork Prefers Boys, In January, Anyway

Although the stork was busy in Washington township during January, he must have juggled his delivery orders, according to records at the Silva Maternity home, where six boys and only one girl were born in the last thirty days.

Sons were born to the following couples: Mr. and Mrs. J. Martinez, on January 7; Mr. and Mrs. La Verne Mendonca, on January 9; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Bragg, on January 14; Mr. and Mrs. M. Maciel, on January 18; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, on January 22, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Garcia, on January 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rose broke the straight run on male children, with a daughter, born on January 2.

Son of Niles Couple Now With Oakland Symphony

Another resident of Washington township is on the road to success in music, it was noted this week, when word was received that Harry Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilcox, of Niles Canyon, began the season Monday as violinist with the Oakland Symphony Orchestra.

Young Wilcox, a student at Hayward, is well-known in this district.

NILES PERSONAL ITEM

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marinelli and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. De Mattel, in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. R. Whipple was a business visitor in Oakland Tuesday.

Women of Pompeii

The women of Pompeii were in no way behind our belles in the art of correcting their natural defects. Lipstick and rouge were used liberally in those days. But also the men were well groomed and wasted much time on their appearance. They anointed themselves with fragrant balms and essences. There were dandies in Pompeii who in summer exchanged their heavy signet rings for light "summer rings."

Petrification

Petrification is caused by the infiltration of water containing dissolved mineral water, such as silica, calcium, carbide or others. Particle by particle the mineral replaces the organic material, sometimes with the original structure retained. The best results occur where silica has been the invading mineral matter, and splendid specimens of silicified wood are often seen.

Colors of Babies' Eyes

In an examination of the eyes of nearly 600 newborn infants at Johns Hopkins University hospital, not only were other colors than blue found, but brown was found in 79.5 per cent of the white infants' eyes and 99.3 per cent of the negroes. Only 28 of the infants examined had plain blue eyes.

New Books Received At Warm Springs

The following books were received at the Warm Springs library recently:

Prodigal Village, Dark Road, Laughing Their Way, Dons of the Old Pueblo, Riddle of Three-Way Creek, Ann at Large, Purple Dawn, What Makes up the World, Arab Interlude, This Freedom, Mr. Togo, Maid of all Work, Every Boy His Own Mechanic, Doree, Revolt of Modern Youth, Story of King Robert the Bruce, With Kit Carson in the Rockies, and a number of others.

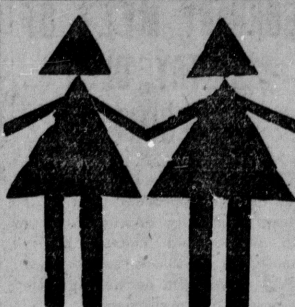

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence Saturday evening. Many friends and relatives attended. The evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

J. S. Brown, Evelyn Leal and Joe Jason, of Centerville, attended a baseball game in San Jose Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mour, of San Jose, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Leal accompanied Mrs. M. Medeiros, Mrs. A. Furtado and Mrs. Bettencourt to Oakland Monday.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The Camp Fire Girls of Washington Township, as an organization of value to local girls, has had nine successful years, according to Mrs. J. E. Townsend, former guardian, now living in Campbell.

Mrs. Allen Goozee, wife of the Congregational pastor in 1926, was the organizer of the Niles group, beginning with eight girls of the Talahi unit, as the first to wear the emblem of the organization. Since that time, the single unit has divided into the four groups of today, comprised of forty-eight girls from all sections of the township.

Immediately after Mrs. Townsend's departure several weeks ago, it became necessary to reorganize the groups and appoint guardians to carry on the work. Whereas all the groups had been under Mrs. Townsend's supervision, several guardians were appointed when she left, to direct the units singly.

Women named to supervise the affairs of each group are: Mrs. Clyde Anderson, who will look after the Centerville Bluebirds; Mrs. Nell F. Meyers, Niles Gemewance guardian; Mrs. Clark Griffin, Niles Junior Gemewance group. The Centerville Gemewance group and the Niles Bluebirds are still without leaders. The latter unit is being supervised by members of the Tingega group, older girls working for their Torchbearer degrees. Leona Solon and Ramona Mellow are two of the Tingega members looking after the smaller girls with the assistance of Mrs. C. Shinn, senior guardian.

During the past several years community service by the Camp Fire groups has been almost continuous. For two years the members have collected funds for the annual Red Cross drive in Washington township; baskets of food for needy families and charitable institutions have been distributed; scrapbooks for the little patients at the Arroyo Preventorium have been made, and numerous other charitable works done. The groups have participated in civic affairs and events, such as assisting at programs of various organizations, assisting at the Niles Wildflower Show, at the Toyon branch garden fete, and at other similar affairs. A three-act play was produced and staged twice last year.

The Camp Fire Mothers' Club, formed last year to further the interest of parents in the work, has done much to help the progress of the groups.

P. A. Ellis, III At Home Here; Report

P. A. Ellis, well-known Niles resident, is said to be ill at his home here. He had recently recovered from an illness that kept him confined to his home for many weeks. His present sickness is said to be a recurrence of the former ailment.

In an attempt to improve his health, Ellis recently went to Los Angeles. He returned late last week to his Niles home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Babcock, Miss Winifred Fournier and Alfred Haines, all of Oakland, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fournier.

ALUMNI GRIDDERS ARE GUESTS OF POST LAST WEEK

Assurance that the Armistice Day football classic, played for the first time last year, will be an annual event in Washington township is seen following a decision of the American Legion Post No. 195, to sponsor the local stars henceforth. The decision was reached at a banquet given by the post in honor of the Washington Township Alumni team last Wednesday evening at the Memorial building, Niles. Proceeds of the annual game will go to the Livermore veterans' hospital.

The main speaker at the affair last week was E. Dixon Bristow, legion post member, who stated the plan was worthy of township-wide support. Bristow called on a number of the alumni players for their opinion.

Among those of the Washington Union High school alumni team honored were:

Important alumni players who did not attend the banquet are: Sam Kerns, Jack Cahill, Ed. Bernard, John Brown, Glenn Trout, Al Silveria, J. Fontes, Gordon Pond and W. Ramos.

BROTHER OF NILES MAN SUCCEUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

Stricken with a fatal attack while playing cards at his home Saturday night, Charles Butler, 48, of Fourteenth and West streets, Oakland, former Niles man, passed away a few minutes later.

Butler, who was raised in this district, was a brother of Alec Butler, well-known here. A sister, Mrs. Lena Silva, lives with the Butlers in Niles. The deceased is also survived by his wife and a step-daughter.

Butler died while playing the last hand of cards for the evening with William Wamsley, formerly of Irvington.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at Hayward, with interment following at the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

NILES VICTORIOUS TWICE; SAN JOSE, NEWARK WALLOPED

Nine Straight Wins Are Listed For Local Aggregation

Two victories in two days was the record hung up last week by the Niles C of C's, when they handed Red Blacow's San Jose State College nine a six to four defeat Saturday, they returned to their home grounds Sunday to wallop the Newark J and F's by a count of fifteen to two.

The Sunday victory brought the Niles win-record to nine straight.

In the state game, played at San Jose, with Niles leading at the end of nine frames it was decided to continue the contest so that Blacow, new state coach, could get a line on his material. At the end of fourteen innings the staters were leading by one run, ten to nine.

According to local players, Blacow's first string nine will go far in college circles this spring. They held the Niles boys scoreless for five innings. Two former Niles mainstays, Watson and Pura, are in Blacow's lineup. The San Jose coach used forty men and five pitchers in quest of the strongest combination to throw against the University of San Francisco this week.

Newark Game

In the Sunday game, the Newark J and F's, reputed as contenders for the Don Harder League Class A pennant, ran afoul of the Niles juggernauts to emerge on the short end of a fifteen to two tally. Niles scored twelve runs in the first inning.

Tony Duarte took first honors with the willow when he averaged 1000 in four tries. Wes Raso rapped the seed safely three times out of six.

Ray Duarte, on the mound for Niles allowed Newark only five hits and two runs. He fanned ten. Support in the field was faultless.

HUNTER-PERRIN NUPTIALS LAST WEEK IN LODI

Miss Anne Lucilla Perrin, former Niles school teacher, and John Hunter, of Niles, were united in marriage last Thursday morning at a beautiful ceremony at St. Anne's church at Lodi. The Rev. Father Patrick Kerrigan officiated.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Virginia Stahl sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Betty Hunter, sister of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Henry Perrin.

Mrs. Charles Stille, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Lawrence Keller, of Niles, longtime friend of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony, immediate relatives of the couple gathered at the home of the bride's parents for a reception, after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in southern California and Mexico. On their return they will take up residence in Niles, where Hunter and his father, Neal Hunter, are engaged in raising pedigree poultry.

The new Mrs. Hunter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perrin, of Lodi. She taught at the Niles Grammar school for several years.

Junior Chambers Have Smoker at Berkeley

About twenty-five members of the Niles Junior Chamber of Commerce, headed by President Sam Kerns, went to Berkeley Tuesday evening to attend a smoker given by the Berkeley Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Claremont.

The Berkeley group were hosts to the Alameda County Junior Chamber, comprised of Oakland, San Leandro, Niles, Newark and Pleasanton. Niles members stated that the entertainment and banquet were excellent. Frank Teasdale, of the Berkeley organization, was chairman.

A number of Newark Junior Chamber members attended the meet, also.
